

Ancestors represented by The Sudbury Savoyards on July 4, 2024
Red, White, and You - A Tribute to Sudbury (and Its Ancestors)

Josiah Haynes
 1696 - 1775

- church deacon & farmer in Sudbury
- there is an elementary school in Sudbury named after him
- married Persis Knight on 9 August 1721 (they had 4 children)
- marched with the Sudbury militia in the Battles of Lexington & Concord at the start of the American Revolution
- died that day 19 April 1775 (now Patriots' Day)

reenactor dressed as a member of the Militia

Hattie J. Goodnow
 1867 - 1944

- photographer
- known for her award-winning photographs of Sudbury
- lived on Concord Road in Sudbury Center
- used a Putnam Marvel 5x8 plate camera with a Waterbury lens to take all of her pictures

Hattie Goodnow, self-portrait

Edith Nason Buckingham
 1877 - 1954

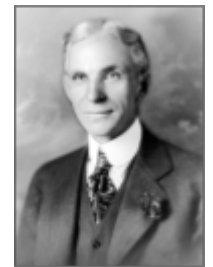

- was the first woman to earn a Ph.D. in zoology from Radcliffe College (1910)
- raised Old English Sheepdogs
- was a chicken farmer and owned Featherland Farm (portions her farm are now Featherland Park and Lincoln-Sudbury Regional High School)

Edith N Buckingham Radcliffe 1902

Henry Ford
 1863 - 1947

- founder of the Ford Motor Company that made the Model T automobile
- purchased the Wayside Inn, restored it, added buildings (the Grist Mill, Martha Mary Chapel, and the Redstone Schoolhouse)
- established the nonprofit organization managing the property

Henry Ford 1919

Babe Ruth
 1895 - 1948

- Boston Red Sox player from 1914-1919
- one of the first 5 players elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame
- renamed his place on Dutton Road in Sudbury as Home Plate Farm

Babe Ruth

Hattie Graham

- first woman blacksmith in Sudbury
- opened her shop in 1882

represented on our float by a leather apron

image of a 19th century blacksmith

Joanna Gleason
 1819 - 1896

- granddaughter of a Revolutionary War soldier
- donated $1000 in for the Revolutionary War Monument (this amount would be $37,389 today)
- the monument reads "erected 1896 in honor of the soldiers and sailors of Sudbury who fought at Lexington, Concord, Bunker Hill and other battles of the Revolutionary War 1775 - 1783"

Joanna Gleason

at 329 Concord Road

Please see the next page for information about our next production.

In February 2025 The Sudbury Savoyards will present Gilbert & Sullivan's

Ruddigore; or, The Witch's Curse

www.SudburySavoyards.org

During his lifetime, Sir Rupert Murgatroyd was very cruel to witches, so one of them put a curse on all of his future relatives. Each must commit one crime a day for their entire lives. The current Baronet, Robin Oakapple, does not want to continue being a bad baronet. The ghosts of ancestors exit from their portrait frames to confront him to ensure he fulfills the terms of the curse.